Statutory Rules and Orders issued by the Ministry of Defence.

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

New Delhi, the 15th September 1951.

S. R. O. 387.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 14 of the Territorial Army Act, 1948 (LVI of 1948), the Central Government hereby directs that the following amendment shall be made in the Territorial Army Rules, 1948, namely :—

For clauses (b) and (c) of Rule 19 of the said Rules, the following clauses shall be substituted, namely :—

"(b) Every member of an urban unit shall be liable to undergo recruit training for a period of 32 days, during which period he may be embodied for not less than four consecutive days. This embodied period may, however, be extended up to a maximum of fourteen consecutive days in all, provided that in so far as the additional period beyond the initial period of four days is concerned, the individual volunteers and obtains the written consent of his employer, if any. The annual musketry course as laid down in the Regulations may be fired at any time during the period the person is embodied.

(c) Every member of an urban unit shall be liable for the purpose of firing the annual musketry course to be embodied for one day in the year in addition to the period prescribed in clause (b). Such periods of embodiment shall only take place on Sundays or other recognised holidays.

(d) The Officer Commanding any unit may exempt either wholly or in part from liability to undergo recruit training any person who has in his opinion undergone adequate military training in the regular forces or otherwise."

(Case No. 47027/GS/TA-2).
